

AFFIRMATIONS FOR A HAPPY HOME

I love and appreciate my home

I know home is wherever I choose to make it

The strong foundations of my home support my life, family, ideas and creations

I am immediately at ease and feel safe when I step into my home

Family and friends feel relaxed in my home and respect my home as I welcome them in

I welcome good vibes and good times into my home

I make the most of my space and am grateful for the space I have

I express my true self through my home's décor

I enjoy decorating my home with pieces that bring me joy

My soul speaks through the way I assemble my life in my home

I respect the energy of my possessions by giving them fitting space within my home

I am filled with joy by everything in my home

I clear my home of stagnant energy through music, dance, moving pieces around and letting go of items that no longer serve me

I move negative energy out of my home easily through methods that feel right to me

My home brings me comfort and peace

I dedicate a space in my home for quiet meditation and stillness

I celebrate the seasons in my home and what they bring to life

My home is a sacred place for my growth and restoration

I open the windows of my home and let soothing breezes cleanse it gently

I respect the energy of my home by keeping it clean and fresh

When I bring plant life and flowers into my home it thanks me with living energy

My home is a place of calm and a place of celebration

My home is often filled with music and laughter that lights up all those who enter

I respect the memories my home holds whilst committing in making new ones within it

My garden is alive and life giving

My garden makes me smile

I am inspired by my home

I am free to be creative in my home

I individually thank the various parts of my home for how they serve me

Everything in my home belongs there

Everything in my home is in me

I am free to travel and live outside of my home knowing my home is within

No attack on my home shall attack the home of my soul

No negativity prospers here, all is well in this abode

I take care of my home and garden and they take care of me in return

I envision my happy home and make it so

I thank my home for sheltering me and those I love

My home is full of light and love

My home is a happy home

I love you, thank you.
